Football Summary

Roosevelt suffered the most disastrous football season in the history of the school. Handicapped by a green squad, injury of veterans, and expulsion for breaking training, Coach Harris never sent the same team on the field for any two games and consequently few earned letters. Fighting every minute the game Roughriders, outweighed in every game, faced each opponent of their hard schedule and gave everything they had. A characteristic of each defeat was that the Roosevelt boys played a close game the first half, but wore down after the half because of their light weight. Facing Chariton September 22, in their opening game the Blue and White were defeated 25-0 on the Chariton field. Heartened by holding Perry to a 7-7 tie the following Saturday the Roughriders went up against the strong Jefferson team October 6, but were forced to take the short end of an 18-0 verdict.

A completely remodeled team took the field for the first home game against Lincoln. They struggled four quarters to a scoreless tie, but the following Saturday, October 20, the Polar Bears of North High battered the Roughriders to a 27-0 decision. The last three games Roosevelt dropped by big scores and they should be remembered only as just cause for revenge in future years.

The result of the games:

Roosevelt	0	Chariton	25
Roosevelt	7	Perry	7
Roosevelt	0	Jefferson	18
Roosevelt	0	Lincoln	0
Roosevelt	0	North	27
Roosevelt	6	Boone	33
Roosevelt	0	Burlington	45
Roosevelt	0	East	65
Points Scored by Roosevelt	13
Opponents	210

Roughriders Enjoy Successful Basketball Season

Although starting the season poorly the Roosevelt "5" ended up with a bang to rate second-best in the state.

The first game was played on our court with the North Side boys as opposition. The quintet was badly trimmed 37 to 8 and set out to revenge the defeat.

East was next on the bill and were drubbed to the tune of 31 to 17 as was Lincoln the next week.

The boys journeyed to Cedar Rapids through the holiday rest to encounter Washington High five where they were nosed out by one point in 24-23 game.

Boone also came from behind to "whang" the Roughriders 19 to 16.

The Blue and White "swishers" sailed into Greenfield from the first to the final gun for a well earned 21 to 9 victory and the next week again played fine ball to easily outscore Webster City 30 to 18.

The boys seemed to have hit their stride and waded through Perry at Perry 33 to 28, Chariton 28 to 19 and Cedar Rapids 34 to 15 only to return to the city round robin and get drubbed in quick succession by East 27 to 17 and North 25 to 14.

They won the last game before the start of the sectional from Lincoln by the large score of 39 to 14.

The weary Roughriders then started on the hardest grind of the whole season, the state tournament.

Playing North High in the first round of the sectional the boys, although doped to lose, walloped North 35 to 21. Lincoln was played in the final and were trounced to the tune of 44 to 24. This gave Roosevelt the sectional plaque to keep as it was the second straight year the Roughriders had won this honor.

Adel was the first team encountered at Newton in the District meet and although playing poor ball they managed to outscore their rivals 41 to 30.

A beautiful recovery and a last half rally put the Roosevelt five on the long end of a 34-26 score in the Newton High game and they easily took Johnston Station 41 to 19 and Mitchellville 44 to 20 in the final to win the right to compete for the state title at Iowa City.

Council Bluffs was the first opposition the Blue and White basketballers met at the state and despite the ragged brand of ball they displayed they earned the box score decision of 28 to 23.

Reinbeck was an easy mark for the smooth working offense that "windmilled" down the floor time and again for basket after basket and walloped their North Eastern Iowa rivals 34 to 14 to gain the finals of the state championship.

It was a different team that took the floor against Davenport the following night but despite their ragged play in the pinches, the boys managed to press their opponents until the final gun, being nosed out 26 to 21 but gained the distinction as runnersup for the State Basketball Championship of Iowa, 1929.

THE ROUNDUP

JEAN HANSEN, Jan. '29

Jean started the season at end but was shifted to halfback where his speed added offensive strength.

He distinguished himself in the North High game when he ran down the speedy Jimmy Hayes who was headed for a touch-down. Jean broke his collar-bone at Burlington and was out of the East game.

KENNETH DAHLMAN, Jan. '29

"Kennie" was a dependable guard and a big strength on the line. Coming from West High, where he won a letter in 1927, Dahlman played a steady, hard, game all season. He was the biggest of all the regulars and one of the fastest. Kennie received honorable mention on the Register's all-state team.

JIMMIE BRIGHT, Jan. '29

Jimmie filling the tackle position, played every quarter all season and acted as captain the last half. He was one of the few experienced men on the squad and was one of the mainstays of the line. He inspired the whole team with his fighting spirit and always played a hard game. Bright called signals in the huddle the last two games.

DUDLEY RAE, Jan. '30

"Dud" is a "brick yard blonde" from Sioux City and plays a mean game on the line. He gave everything he had and kept fighting to the end. Dudley has another year and should be a valuable line man next year.

GAIL GRIFFITH, Jan. '31

Although playing the required quarters Gail was deprived of a monogram because he was ineligible at the end of the season. He started the season in the backfield and later played at end. Griffith punted for the team when he was in and always played a hard, fast game. He has two more years.

DEAN PARKER, June '29

Dean was one of the mainstays of our football team last fall. Playing at end, tackle and half, he displayed a good brand of ball and was awarded a berth on the second all-city team at end.

His continual "talking it up" and fighting spirit helped keep the team together and a good man will be lost when Dean leaves in June.

VICTOR LAURENZO, June '30

"Vic" had seen action in the 1927 season, but won his first letter last fall. Playing most of his quarters in the backfield he was one of the most dependable ground gainers we had. Late in the season he saw action on the line and his characteristic fighting spirit prevailed. Vic has another year, but due to a severely injured wrist it is doubted if he will be able to compete.

BILL HOPKINS, June '29

Bill was on the injured list most of the season but saw action enough to win his monogram. Playing fullback and safety man he was a sure tackler and a good ball-toter. He was an accurate passer and strengthened the offense in that capacity. Hopkins will be lost in June.

BECKER

BASKERVILLE

EVERETT

JENKS

ED BECKER, Jan. '30

Playing as forward, Ed was the leading scorer of the squad and co-captain the second semester. He was placed on the all-state and all-city teams and highly lauded by all critics who saw him play. After Baskerville joined the squad, Ed jumped at center and controlled the tip-off in most of the games. He scored 154 points in twenty-one contests.

RUSS BASKERVILLE, June '29

Russ joined the squad in time to play the tournaments and had much to do with the splendid rally of the Roughriders. Playing only nine games Baskerville scored 105 points against the strongest teams of the state. He was selected on the first all-state tournament team and many all-state teams in papers throughout the state. Russ did not play enough of the season to win a letter, but he was a monogrammed man last year.

BOB EVERETT, June '30

Last season opened the curtains on Bob's career as a Blue and White basketballer. Playing his first season with the Roughriders, he displayed a fine brand of ball on the offense and despite his size, his defensive game was of the best. He started the year on the "B" team but went through the sectional, district and state as a first team sub, getting enough quarters to earn his monogram. Bob has another year of athletics and should be a real threat next year.

HAROLD JENKS, June '29

Harold played a guard on the "B" team all season and then joined the tournament squad as a reserve. Using a high arch shot, "Jasper", was the victim of many "bright cracks" from the stands, but never the less when his attempts did get by the rafters they were good. Harold dons the cap and gown this June.

SI PARKER, June '32

Si is the first Freshman ever to represent the school on the basketball floor, but was the most sensational player of the team. He was second in individual scoring, often ringing up ten or twelve points a game. A great future is predicted for Si as he has three more years.

HAROLD BREED, Jan. '29

Harold played his final game with the Roosevelt club against Webster City. His fine sportsmanship and team play marked him out as one of the best guards in the history of our school and also won for him the distinction of captain the first part of the season. He was a whirlwind guard, covering the floor with uncanny speed and as a basket shooter he was no slouch. As he was graduated in January his help was missed during the second semester and throughout the state tournament.

THE ROUNDUP

ED FITZSIMMONS, June '29

Ed played center on the "B" team the early part of the season, but was called to fill in a vacancy on the first team before the second round of the city tournament. He played the game like a veteran and inspired the entire team with his fighting spirit. Ed did not play regularly in the tournaments, but was always ready to go in and fight. He is lost with the June Class.

DEAN PARKER, June '29

Dean played his third year of basketball at Roosevelt and his second on the "A" team. He was a co-captain after the graduation of Breed and was one of the best guards in the state, being selected on Jack North's third all-state team. He was also awarded all-city honors. The team will be without Dean next year as he is graduated in June.

DAVE ABRAM, Jan. '30

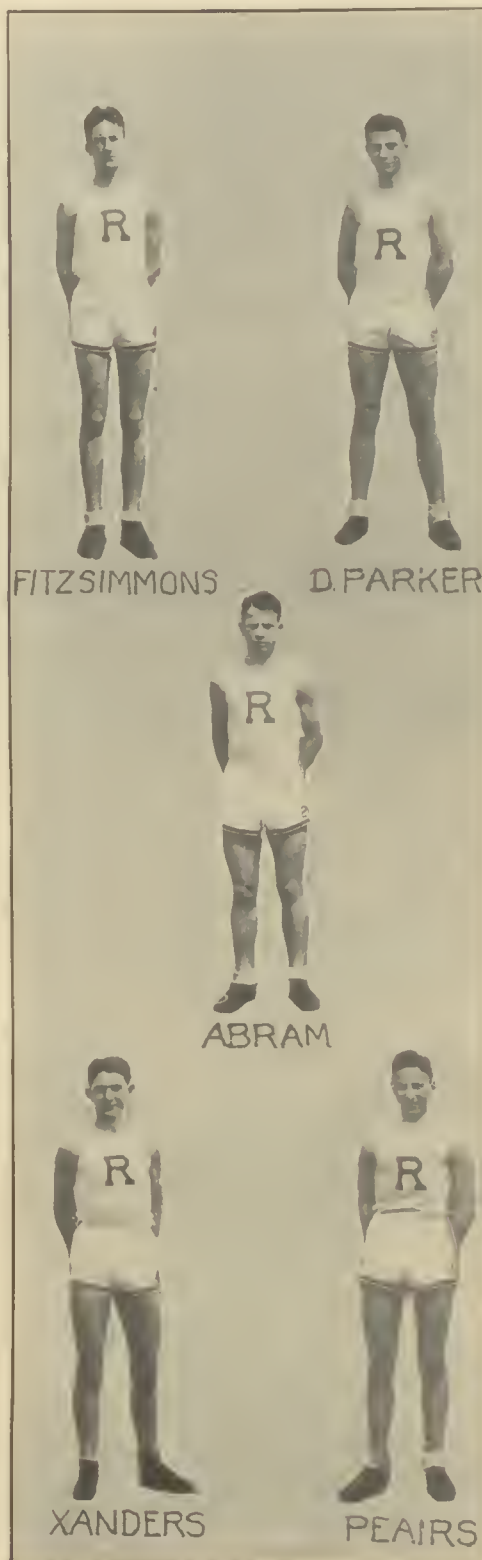

Dave played his first year of basketball at Roosevelt, but was soon recognized as a guard as steady as any that ever wore the Blue and White. Coming from the "Y", where he had learned the game, Abram soon won the admiration of the entire school for his clean guarding and team play. He had a good eye for the basket and could usually be counted on to aid the offense.

WAYNE XANDERS, June '30

Wayne played a guard on the "C" team and because of his steady game he was drafted for the tournament squad. Tall and lanky, Xanders guarded with a vengeance and advanced the ball in a commendable fashion. He has another year and should be a big cog in the defense.

JOE PEAIRS, Jan. '30

Joe played on Coach Rump's "C" team all season and was the leading scorer of that division. Drafted for the tournaments Joe worked in nicely with the first quad and saw the most action of any of the subs. Joe is back until January and should put lots of scoring punch in the offense.

Swimming Team Makes Impressive Record

The Roosevelt swimming team in the season just past has made an impressive record. Starting the year with material abundant Coach Harris developed one of the strongest teams in the history of our school.

They were captained by HARRY HASKINS, who won recognition as one of the best free style swimmers in the state. Weeks was always a point winner, being another champion in his class. Stokely and Miller were also dependable point-winning men. Young and Ogden always placed in the fancy dives, and Hull became a reputable backstroke swimmer.

Their first contest was at Boone when they trounced their rivals 46 to 23. Newton, next encountered, was whipped to the tune of 50 to 16.

The city meet came around next and Roosevelt trimmed North High 46 to 23, East 43 to 26 and Lincoln 58 to 11.

In the meantime they had journeyed to Iowa City where they gained 12 points and third place in the Midway Invitation meet.

In the final city meet our paddlers brushed aside all opposition to win the city championship. In this meet every man performed like a champion and brought home the bacon for Roosevelt.

The team started training then for the National High School meet at Chicago which was their final where they placed seventh by way of Week's second in the 100 yard breaststroke.

Second Row:—HANSEN, LOCKRIDGE, WILLIAMS, DERRICK, NESS.

Back Row:—BRENNAN, JOHNSTON, COACH HARRIS, GREENEDAUM, TAYLOR.

Like the football team, the Roosevelt track squad boasted few veterans. Lockeridge, Becker, and Taylor were the only lettermen available at the opening of the season, but Coach Harris developed a powerful team that won glory in the district and state meets. At the Valley Junction district meet the Roughriders collected thirty-two points and fourth place in the meet. Ed Becker won first place in the 100 and 220 yard dashes and ran on the triumphant half-mile relay team. Monrad Ness placed first in the 220 yard low hurdles in a fast race and Tommy Mac Laughlin and Layton Lockeridge took second in the shot put and the 880 yard run, respectively, to qualify for the state meet.

Ovid Fitzgerald: Delving more deeply.

Adair Baker: Where's Virginia?

Elmer Neufeld: Ditto.

Bill Ballinger: That's what they tell me.

Peggy Hunter: Don't be an Astrachan jacket.

Mr. Carrothers: Well naeow.

Owen Kinard: According to the statistics of 19—.

Jerry Wood: Won't that be jolly?

Ed Kruidenier: Oh bang!

Ruth Nellis: It sure tickled me.

Miss Sperry: I think that's rich.

Virginia Eshbaugh: I just howled!

Jack Christy: Have you traveled much?
Howard Kohn: Yes, last summer I took a trip down the Mississippi.

Jack: Did you see the levees?
Howard: No, they were away. We stopped with the Cohens.

Ed Becker: Say, Bob, can I borrow your pen?

Bob Cameron: Sure thing.

Ed: Got a sheet of paper?

Bob: Reckon so.

Ed: Going past the mail box when you go out?

Bob: Uh-huh.

Ed: Wait a minute till I finish this, will you?

Bob: O. K.

Ed: Want to lend me a stamp?

WHAT THEY DIDN'T SAY

Mr. Cook: School will be dismissed for today.

Bob Howland: I have my news written for today.

Margaret Moore: I'm not prepared.

Miss Meers: I will dismiss class. There's no news to write today.

Jane Palmer: I haven't two hundred and fifty words for today.

Virginia Rowe and Ted Haas: Let's start working on another operetta.

Mr. Stonecipher: Skip any time you want to.

Ed Kriediner: Oh dear, I only got three ones.

Owen Kinnard: I haven't anything to say.

Miss Ogden: You can have this six weeks on this outline.

Mary Martin: No, Elmer, I'd rather walk home alone.

Bob Cameron: I am prepared.

Victor Laurenzo: Football is too rough.

Miss Gracey: Nothing to do.

Miss Duval: I will have no more tests this semester.

Howard Kohn: I'd rather not be in this play.

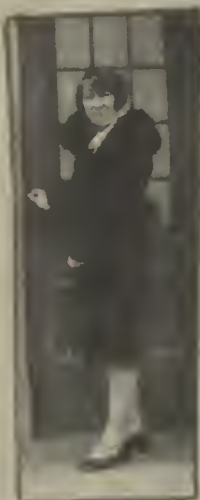

Miss Moulton: You girls aren't wearing enough rouge.

Betty Harter: I got a five.

Miss Jacobs: We ain't gonna have an assignment for tomorrow.

Bill Ballinger: I wish we had school in the evenings and on Saturday, too.

BELIEVE IT OR NOT

They came to school quite early,
And they gayly hastened in.
They anxiously awaited time for lessons to begin.
They went into their classrooms
With smiles upon their faces;
They sat up in the front row
To fill up all the spaces.
They brilliantly recited,
Though they had their watches on
They didn't watch the time a bit;
They didn't even yawn.
When 'twas time to eat their lunch,
They strolled along the hall;
They stopped to chat along the way,
And hurried not at all!
When dismissal bell was rung
Their faces wore a frown.
All this was on the day, you see,
The world turned upside down.

THE VILLAGE BLACKSMITH

Under an ad for gasoline
The village smithy stands;
He's agent for the Jinx machine
And several other brands.
He hasn't shod a horse for years,
For fear he'd soil his hands.
He wears a gold watch on his wrist,
A pearl pin in his tie,
His links are made of amethyst,
The finest he could buy.
There's not a thing the smithy wears
That doesn't please the eye.
Week in, week out, from morn till night,
He sees the autos come
With brakes that are not working right
And axles on the bum.
With gas, repairs, and grease and oil
He makes a tidy sum.
He has a staff of skillful men
That number twenty-four,
Who toil from six a. m. till ten
And sometimes even more.
The smithy never does a stroke—
He thinks that work's a bore.
The children coming home from school
Look in at the open door,
And laugh to see some city fool
Set up an awful roar
When called to pay some whopping bill
The smith has soaked him for.
He goes on Sunday to the kirk,
His mind quite free from cares,
Because his men are hard at work
With punctures and repairs.
And if the weather's fine and warm,
The smith says grateful prayers.
Oiling—refilling—repairing,
Onward through life he goes,
And never once despairing
So long as his income grows.
Each night the thought of something done
Augments his sweet repose.

Miss Sperry: Bill Ballinger, can you illustrate the use of the word "dismal"?

Bally:

I like all the girls in the city,
But I keep all my kisses for Kate;
If I ever kiss any other sweet miss,
Den dismissal gimme de gate.

Senior: Did you take chloroform?

Freshman: No. Who teaches it?

"Words fail me," muttered a small boy as he flunked a spelling test.

John Barlow: I want to buy some gloves.

Clerk: Kid gloves?

John: I should say not! I'm a Senior now!

"Is this the fire department?" yelled the excited Mr. Eastman over the phone.

"Yes, what do you want?"

"When I buy a bag," he declared, "I like to see some cowhide in it."

"Oi," said the dealer, "you should want tricks!"

Teacher: No, Billie, you must not say, "I ain't a goin'." You should say "I am not going, you are not going, he is not going, we are not going, you are not going, they are not going."

Billie (very surprised): Gee, ain't nobody goin'?

Female: What have you there?

Male: Some insect powder.

Female: Good heavens! You aren't going to commit suicide?

"What is a veterinary?"

"A place where they keep veterans."

Tom: Did you hear about Joe being two-thirds married to that Easton girl?

Tim: How come?

Tom: Well, Joe's willing, and so is the preacher.

Grandmother: The cow says "Moo." the sheep says "Baa."

Modern Child: What kind of a noise does an armadillo make?

Kind Old Lady: Well, my little man, you've got roses in your cheek, haven't you?

Dear Little Man (Hi Myers): Naw. That ain't roses, that's a wad of gum.

Dean kissed her on the cheek,
It seemed a harmless frolic,
Now he's been sick a week,
They say it's painter's colic.

She: Do you believe in hereafter?

He: Sure I do.

She: Well, then, hereafter please don't bother me.

Big Meat Man: Hurry up, Jimmy; break the bones in Mr. Williamson's chops and put Mr. Smith's ribs in the basket for him.

Little Meat Boy: All right, sir, as soon as I have sawed off Mrs. Murphy's legs.

Teacher: Give a sentence with the word "welfare."

Jack Christy: Welfare crying out loud, look who's here!

THE ONLY QUESTION

The professor was delivering the last lecture of the term. He told the students with much emphasis that he expected them to devote all their time to preparing for the final examination.

"The examination papers are now in the hands of the printer," he concluded. "Now, is there any question you would like answered?"

Silence prevailed for a moment, then a voice piped up: "Who is the printer?"

She shut the door behind her and hesitated a moment in semi-darkness. The firelight gleamed on the silk of her pajamas as she slipped across the room to his side. Softly she stroked his hair, put her arms around his neck and pressed herself against his body.

"May I?" she whispered in his ear.

"Oh, I guess so," he said, "but I want you to behave yourself when you go to the Junior Prom and remember that you are my daughter."
